Randy Hawthorne	Norma Philips
John Strassberger	Thomas Tate
Kevin Grierson	Criztina Jean

Jim Elder asked about the possibility of utilizing the CRR insurance to cover races that we assist with. Based on the latest guidelines from RRCA that doesn't seem possible. Jim was asked if he could provide shoe recommendations after CRR races. He is also looking at starting group runs from Colonial Sports on Jamestown Rd on Tuesday or Wednesday evenings.

Criztina Jean briefed the board on the Hampton Roads Super Grand Prix. She is working with Roger Hopper to get more folks to sign up and keep more accurate scoring.

Rick briefed that Stan Rockwell would like to turn over his website duties to someone. Possible candidate is Chris Schleif.

Jason Miller provided a membership update. The club currently has 204 members and 94 of those signed up using Run Sign Up.

Davis Glass discussed the latest with the Greater Williamsburg Distance Running Club. Starting on March 30th they will have 2 practices a week, Tuesday and Thursday at Jamestown HS from 5:30-6:30. Targeting runners 8 years old to 8th grade.

Norma Philips would like to start an "outreach table" at CRR races. The purpose is to give new runners a person to talk with about any running topic i.e. shoes, workouts.

Rick briefed that the CRR clothing inventory is pretty much depleted and we need to restock. Colonial Sports can set up online ordering. It may be a good idea to provide a CRR t-shirt to new members. Steve Altman has become the official club equipment manager and has all the equipment.

Greg Dawson will be race director for the Powhatan Creek Trail Run in July. He also talked about recruiting runners for the Masters 8K event during Shamrock weekend.

Thomas Tate discussed his interest in learning how to become a USATF course certifier. He will also be attending the RRCA convention 1st week of April.

Paul Pelletier briefed on the status of the Queens Lake 5K that will take place on March 31st. Also the 2018 CRR scholarship application is updated and on the club website. Applications are due May 10th.

It was decided that Ellen Womeldorf would be the guest speaker at the May 23rd annual election meeting.
